Together a fome

Here are some activities you could do together as a family, begin with the story and then do as many or as few as you like, in any order.

Bible Passage

Today we will be exploring together, the miracle of the official's son.

You can find it in your Bible in: John 4 v 46–54

Read the story together – choose a Bible translation or children's story version which best suits your group.

A prayer to say together

Dear God,

Thank you for the story of the Official's Son which reminds us that you care for everybody. Help us to have faith and trust in you like the Official in the story. Even when we cannot see you at work or when we do not feel you near us, help us to remember that you can perform miracles.

We pray for all those who have family members that are ill at this time, may you be their comfort. Give them strength and faith to trust in you and to bring their own family to you in prayer.

Amen

Discussion

A question for adults to ask children

How do you think the official felt when Jesus said "Go. Your son will live"?

There are so many miracles in the Bible where we see Jesus reach out and touch somebody to heal them, the official must have heard all the stories about what Jesus had been doing. Perhaps he thought Jesus would come with him, maybe he imagined Jesus laying hands on his son and praying for his healing.

It took a lot of faith for the official to come to Jesus for help, it took even more to go home and trust that Jesus could perform a miracle from so far away. (It is 16.47 miles between Capernaum and Cana).

Some questions for children to ask adults

Can you think of a time when you had to trust in God even when you couldn't see Him at work?

Family Activity 1

Jesus healed the Official's son without even touching him, set your family a hands-free challenge. You will need an object to transfer such as a balloon, teddy or ball. Can you get the object from one side of the room to the other without using your hands and without letting it touch the floor?

You could try holding the item with your elbow, between your knees, under your chin or even balancing it on your head... see how well you can work together as a team to complete the hands-free challenge!

A verse to remember

James 5 v 15 And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up.

Try to learn this simple verse together, you could come up with some actions to help you remember it or decorate the verse on a piece of paper or card together and put it up somewhere to remind you of it through the week.

If you have some friends or family members that you know who are sick why not put the verse up alongside a list of names, photos or a selection of Lego or toy figures chosen to represent them. Use this as a prayer station and as a reminder to keep asking God to be their healer.

Even though we might not be able to lay hands on people to pray at the moment we can still trust that God will be their healer, just like the Official in the story.

"What time did my son begin to get well?"

The Official was not there when his son first began to get better, but he knew it was the exact time that he had met with Jesus. Why not take on some of these time themed challenges...

Prayer O'clock

Why not challenge everybody in your family to pause for a quick prayer on the hour every hour!

You could do this for the whole week or pick a day / time to focus on e.g. praying together every day at 7am and 7pm.

The Minute Game

One person has a clock or phone timer, this person tells everybody when to begin.

Everybody else must stand up, they must sit down when they think a minute has passed – they are not allowed to cheat by looking at a watch or clock. Once everybody has sat down the person watching the timer should say who was closest.

"What's the time Mr Wolf?"

Play a game of "What's the time Mr. Wolf?" . One person is 'Mr Wolf' and stands at one end of the room, everybody else stands at the other, they are the sheep.

The sheep ask "What's the time Mr. Wolf?" and Mr. Wolf must say a time e.g. - "one o'clock" "eight o'clock" etc. The sheep then take that number of steps toward Mr. Wolf – (e.g. eight steps for eight o'clock)

This is repeated. Each time the steps will take the sheep closer to Mr Wolf. When Mr. Wolf feels like it, instead of a number they say, "Dinner time!" they then turn around and chase the sheep.
The first sheep to be

The first sheep to be caught becomes the next Mr. Wolf.
